Rawley Springs, Va., will be regularly opened for the reception of visitors, on the first day of June, 18th. Situated as 11s in the mountains of the Valley, it is not only one of the most delightful Summer resorts in the State, but its great curative properties are becoming widnly celebrated.

The analysis of the water by Prof. Mallett, of the University of Va., together with the experience of many eminent Physicians prove that it is "the Springs" for suffering females, but besides its wonderful tonic properties as a remedy in general debility, anemia and diseases peculiar to temales, it is uncurposed in the treatment of the various forms of Dyapepain, and particular for those suffering from torpid and in 've liver, its action upon the liver, as well as the kidney, being prompt and decided. Very many remarkable cures could be cited of this class of troublesome diseases.

Eawley 1. now easy of access, silanted only twelve mires from Harrisonburg, the present terminus of the Orange and Manassas Gapalirosid from which point there will be two daily lines of Stages, moraning and evening. Since last Summer the buildings have been greatly improved, as well as the road from Harrisonburg, the present terminus of the Orange and Manassas Gapality in proved, as well as the road from Harrisonburg to the Springs. There is also a Telegraph office at Harrisonburg. The accommodations will be strictly first-class under the management of Joseph N. Woodward, wildely known as a hotel manager.
